Summary:

The SSIP committee has organized workshop on “Patent Search and Brief Overview of Patenting on Computer Related Inventions (CRIs) in India” for all the engineering students of our institute on 26th September, 2019. The aim of this informative workshop was to make students aware about patent filing and patent research in India and a few other countries across the globe.

The expert speaker Dr. Anish Gandhi, currently serving as the Principal of C.K. Pithawalla College of Engineering & Technology, shared his knowledge on the given topic with students. He explained the chronological process of patenting from searching of relevant patents to the final filing. The speaker began his speech with an emphasis on importance of how to find the existent similar patents. He also discussed the legality and legitimacy of patents in India, U.S. and U.K. The students felt that session was very informative and necessary to gain knowledge about patenting.
