Walkathon – Run for Swadeshi Sankalp Run(National Youth Day Celebration)

Introduction

Sarvajanik University organized a Walkathon under the “Run for Swadeshi Sankalp Run” programme on 12th January 2026 to commemorate National Youth Day, marking the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. The event aimed to motivate youth to imbibe the ideals of nationalism, self-reliance, discipline, and social responsibility as envisioned by Swami Vivekananda.

The Walkathon saw the enthusiastic participation of approximately 200 students and faculty members from various institutes affiliated with Sarvajanik University, demonstrating a strong spirit of unity and youth empowerment.

Objectives of the Event

The key objectives of organizing the Walkathon were:

- To commemorate National Youth Day and honor the teachings and ideals of Swami Vivekananda
- To promote nationalism, self-reliance (Swadeshi), and social responsibility among students
- To encourage physical fitness and a healthy lifestyle among youth
- To foster a sense of discipline, unity, and teamwork
- To inspire students to actively participate in nation-building activities

Event Highlights

The event commenced at 9:00 AM at the SCET Dome. The Walkathon was flagged off by Ms. Kalyani Saxena, an international swimmer from Sarvajanik University, whose presence inspired participants to strive for excellence and discipline in both sports and life.

Volunteers from NSS and NCC played a crucial role in managing the event efficiently, ensuring proper coordination, safety, and smooth conduct. The participants walked with enthusiasm, reflecting energy, discipline, and commitment towards national values.
