Introduction

Sarvajanik College of Engineering and Technology (SCET), Surat, celebrated Independence Day with great patriotic spirit, enthusiasm, and pride. The celebration provided an opportunity for students, faculty members, and staff to come together and remember the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters. The event was hosted gracefully and was organized with the aim of encouraging patriotism, unity, and a sense of responsibility among the students.

1. Opening and Flag Hoisting Ceremony

The celebration commenced at 9:00 AM at the SCET Amphitheatre (DOME), SCET Ground with a soulful collective rendition of Vande Mataram. The atmosphere was filled with patriotism and enthusiasm as students and faculty members gathered to mark this important national occasion.

The highlight of the opening ceremony was the flag-hoisting ceremony. The host invited Principal Dr. Hiren Patel, Mr. Jiteshbhai Gandhi, Mr. Aswinbhai Rathod, and Mr. Bharatbhai to unfurl the National Flag. As the tricolour rose proudly and fluttered in the breeze, everyone present stood respectfully and joined in singing the National Anthem. The ceremony created a strong feeling of unity and pride among all the attendees.

2. Presidential Address

Following the flag-hoisting ceremony, an inspiring address was delivered by the Principal, Dr. Hiren Patel. In his speech, he discussed the four important phases of India's journey since independence and highlighted the country's progress and development over the years. His words encouraged the audience to reflect on India's achievements as well as the responsibilities of its citizens. The speech also emphasized the importance of education, unity, discipline, and active participation in the development of the nation. The inspiring address created a thoughtful and patriotic atmosphere among the students and faculty members.

3. Cultural Performances

The celebration was further enriched by a series of cultural performances presented by the various student clubs of SCET. These performances beautifully expressed the themes of patriotism, freedom, sacrifice, and love for the nation.

Patriotic Dance Performance: The SCET Dance Club presented two energetic and captivating dance performances based on the theme of patriotism. The performers showcased excellent coordination, expressions, and enthusiasm. Their vibrant choreography received appreciation from the audience and added energy to the celebration.

Dramatic Portrayal: The Drama Club presented a powerful theatrical performance highlighting the sacrifices of great freedom fighters, particularly Bhagat Singh and Sukhdev. The emotional portrayal reminded everyone of the courage, dedication, and sacrifices of those who fought for India's independence. The performance deeply touched the audience and conveyed an important message about valuing the freedom we enjoy today.

Conclusion

The Independence Day celebration at SCET concluded successfully with a strong sense of patriotism, unity, and pride among the students and faculty members. The event was not only a celebration of India's independence but also a meaningful reminder of the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters and the responsibilities we have as citizens of the nation.

We express our heartfelt gratitude to the Provost, Principal, faculty members, student clubs, participants, and all the students for their valuable contribution to making the event memorable and meaningful. The celebration inspired everyone to work with dedication, uphold the values of the nation, and contribute positively to its progress.

SCET looks forward to continuing such celebrations and educational activities in the coming years, fostering knowledge, awareness, patriotism, and responsible citizenship among its students with enthusiasm and dedication.
