Women Gathering in Brief:

- The gathering at SCET commenced with a heartfelt welcome extended to the female staff by Dr. Jigisha Pandya, setting a warm and inclusive tone for the event. Dr. Pandya also took charge of hosting team-building activities and enjoyable games, memory game, fostering camaraderie and a spirit of togetherness among all participants. As the games ensued, excitement filled the air, culminating in the announcement of winners who were rewarded with delectable chocolates, adding a touch of delight to the occasion.
- Following the lively games, Dr. Kaushika Pal presented a captivating video and presentation detailing the intricate aspects of the newly unveiled logo. She provided a deeper understanding of the symbolism and significance embedded within the logo design, igniting a sense of pride and enthusiasm among the attendees.
- The presentation is shown on the next page.

- To mark the official launch of the logo, a celebratory cake cutting ceremony ensued, symbolizing a new chapter in Women Development Cell's journey and the collective aspirations of its female staff members. Amidst cheers and applause, the cake served as a sweet emblem of unity and progress.
- As the festivities continued, all female staff members congregated in the canteen for a delightful hi-tea, offering a moment of relaxation and conviviality after the engaging activities and momentous logo unveiling. Amidst shared laughter and conversation, bonds were strengthened, fostering a sense of community and mutual support among the women of SCET.

Some Glimpse of the gathering:

- We are thankful to Principal Dr. Hiren Patel Sir, for motivation and support for the gathering. We are thankful to Head Electronics and Communication for providing EC AV Room for gathering.
- We are thankful to all female staff, who joined us although very busy and participated, even for short time.
- The logo in Circle format and vertical form is shown below.

"The visual identity of a cell is its unique signature, conveying its essence and function with intricate beauty and purpose."
