

“Joy of Giving” Fun-Fair: A Reward of Joy

“There are those who give with joy, and that joy is their reward.”

- Khalil Gibran.

To bring awareness about the social responsibilities and to develop the quality of contributorship among the students, Humanities and Management Section of ASH Department had successfully organized Fun-Fair entitled “Joy of Giving” under the header of the subject “Contributor Personality Development”. The Fun-Fair was held on 17 February, 2018 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. wherein as much as 277 students from B.E. First year of all the Engineering branches of SCET had participated with immense zeal and zest. The Fun-fair was bifurcated into two sections: Food Corner and Game Zone. On twenty food-stalls, students served variety of food. The fifteen game stalls also showcased a great diversity of games.

The distinguishing part of this Fun-Fair was: physically disabled, blind and orphan children from various NGOs were specially invited for Fun-Fair. Our student participants heartily served food to these differently abled kids and made them to play the games free of cost. Furthermore, all the profit earned by the students was entirely donated to the aforementioned NGOs.

Organized under the invaluable guidance of our honourable Principal Dr. Vaishali Mungurwadi Madam, the event was mentored by previous ASH head Dr. Nitin Vibhakar., Dr. Mahesh Trivedi, Dr. Rajesh Darji, Prof. Bhumika Patel, Prof. Denish Jariwala, Prof. Dhruti Bhavnagarwala and Prof. Chintan Shinde, undertook several duties from the beginning to the end to turn the event into a triumphant one.
