Event Insights:

The SCET College celebrated Janmashtami, the festival marking the birth of Lord Krishna, on 23rd August 2024. The event was held in the Dome area of the college after 4:00 PM. The celebration was organized by the Cultural Committee, with the aim of bringing together students and faculty to partake in traditional festivities. The Dome was beautifully decorated with colorful rangoli patterns, floral garlands, and traditional Krishna-themed motifs. An idol of Lord Krishna was placed at the center of the Dome, adorned with flowers and lights, creating a spiritual ambiance. The event began with our traditional method of worshiping Lord Krishna with "Aarti" by Dean-SAWC, Dr. Mayank Dalal, and the Principal, Dr. Hiren Patel and all the respected faculties present there. The traditional "Janmashtami Aarti" was performed, setting a devotional tone for the evening. Seek blessings and participate in the divine rituals.

A traditional Dahi Handi celebration was held, where teams of students participated in forming human pyramids to break the earthen pot filled with yogurt. Relive the playful spirit of Krishna through this fun-filled tradition. Both girls and boys participated in Dahi Handi. There were 3 Dahi Handi prepared for the students in this celebration in which 2 were celebrated by boys participating and 1 by girls participating in it. The event saw participation from various student groups, faculty members, and the college administration, fostering a sense of community and shared celebration.
