Sarvajanik University Model United Nations (SUMUN)

- Sarvajanik University Model United Nations (SUMUN) is a prestigious academic conference where students step into the shoes of diplomats, lawmakers, and policymakers to engage in thoughtprovoking debates on global and national issues. It is a space where ideas meet action, diplomacy meets debate, and leadership is put to the test.

In the SU-MUN, delegates represent various countries, political figures, or stakeholders in different committees, working collaboratively to find solutions to pressing challenges.

- By participating in SU-MUN, delegates will gain much more than just a debating experience. The conference aims to leave a lasting impact on every participant, equipping them with essential skills and knowledge for their future.

- The Conference was organised on the Days of 20-21st February 2025.
 - Students from Sarvajanik University and other Institutes participated in this conference.
 - Conference was Consisting of National as well as International Committees.
- Delegates form resolutions with the Executive Board's guidance by debating, negotiating, and refining proposals. The EB ensures procedural compliance, encourages consensus, and facilitates voting. Resolutions reflect collective agreement and address the agenda effectively.

Our Executive Board Panel

- The Executive Board (EB) runs the committee by moderating debates, ensuring procedural adherence, and guiding delegates toward productive discussions. They facilitate motions, maintain order, and provide clarifications while encouraging diplomatic negotiations. The EB also oversees the drafting and amendment of resolutions or bills, ensuring they align with the committee's agenda.
- At SU-MUN, the EB comprises experienced individuals from across India, bringing diverse perspectives and expertise to enhance the quality of debate and learning for delegates.

Resolutions

A resolution in Model United Nations (MUN) is a formal document that represents the collective stance of a committee on a given issue. It outlines the problem, discusses solutions, and suggests actions that should be taken. Resolutions follow a structured format, typically consisting of:

1. Heading: Includes the committee name, topic, resolution number, and sponsors.
2. Preamble: Provides background information on the issue, references past UN resolutions, and justifies the need for action.
3. Operative Clauses: Detail the proposed actions, policies, and solutions. These are numbered and usually begin with strong verbs like "Urges," "Calls upon," or "Encourages."

A Resolution Passed in SUMUN, In United Nations General Assembly (UNGA):

AUTHORS: UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION, THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF IRAN;

SIGNATORIES: THE STATE OF PALESTINE, PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA, HASHEMITE KINGDOM OF JORDAN, STATE OF ISRAEL, REPUBLIC OF INDIA, SULTANATE OF OMAN;

AGENDA: REVISITING STATE BOUNDARIES IN MIDDLE EAST COUNTRIES WITH EMPHASIS ON INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAWS

Reminding all nations in the 80th session of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which recognizes the inherent dignity, equality, and inalienable rights of all global citizens,

Recalling the principles enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, particularly the respect for sovereignty, territorial integrity, and the right to self-determination,

Emphasizing the significance of International Humanitarian Law (IHL), as outlined in the Geneva Conventions and their Additional Protocols, in ensuring the protection of civilians and maintaining peace during conflicts,

Welcoming efforts by the UN and international humanitarian organizations to provide aid and support to affected populations, while stressing the need for long-term solutions to territorial disputes, and encouraging cultural exchange programs to foster mutual understanding and reconciliation,

The United Nations General Assembly,

1. Reaffirms the necessity of regionally-led diplomatic initiatives spearheaded by Middle Eastern nations to resolve boundary disputes amicably, free from external coercion or undue interference;
2. Calls upon all middle eastern states to ensure that any revision of boundaries is based on mutual consent, thereby safeguarding the sovereignty and territorial integrity of states in the Middle East;
3. Condemns all acts of violence, forced displacement, arbitrary detention, and other human rights violations resulting from fictitious boundary demarcations or from attempts to unilaterally alter established borders;
4. Encourages all relevant actors to consider measures that facilitate the delivery of humanitarian assistance in line with applicable international standards;
5. Encourages the development of cultural exchange programs between nations involved in boundary disputes to foster mutual understanding, reduce tensions, and promote peaceful dialogue;
6. Urges the establishment of neutral and transparent humanitarian aid corridors with full coordination from state authorities, ensuring sovereignty is respected while aid is distributed under impartial UN oversight;
7. Remains seized of matters.

- As SU-MUN 2025 comes to an end, it marks the culmination of two days of intense debate, diplomacy, and collaboration. Delegates have engaged in meaningful discussions, refined their negotiation skills, and fostered connections that go beyond the conference.
- The Executive Board, Organizing Committee, and Core Council worked tirelessly to ensure a seamless experience, while the participants brought the event to life with their enthusiasm and dedication.
- The Closing Ceremony serves as a moment of reflection, recognizing outstanding performances and celebrating the collective efforts that made SUMUN 2025 a success.
- With the Champion College revealed and final words of gratitude expressed, the conference officially concludes, leaving delegates with valuable memories and lessons to carry forward in their academic and professional journeys.
