Event Insights

On 26th August, 2025, SCET joyfully organized a grand Ganesh Chaturthi celebration, showcasing the richness of Indian culture and the spirit of togetherness. The program, led and managed by the students, filled the campus with devotion, enthusiasm, and harmony. It left a lasting impression on everyone present, reflecting both the true essence of the festival and the unity of our college community. The beautifully decorated idol of Lord Ganesha drew immense reverence and faith. Energetic cultural performances, traditional music, and dance brought festive charm to the evening. The celebration concluded with a soulful aarti and the distribution of prasad, spreading blessings and joy among all.

Event Highlights

1. Grand Arrival of Lord Ganesha

The festivities commenced on 26th August, 2025, with the grand aagman (arrival) of Lord Ganesha's idol. An elaborate procession was arranged by the students, featuring lively traditional music, energetic dances, and eye-catching decorations. Students from all departments came together with great enthusiasm, joyfully welcoming the vighnaharta (remover of obstacles). The vibrant decor, along with the rhythmic beats of drums and chants, created an atmosphere of celebration that brought a special energy across the campus.

2. Decoration and Installation

The festivities commenced on 26th September, 2025, with the grand aagman (arrival) of Lord Ganesha's idol. An elaborate procession was arranged by the students, featuring lively traditional music, energetic dances, and eye-catching decorations. Students from all departments came together with great enthusiasm, joyfully welcoming the vighnaharta (remover of obstacles). The vibrant décor, along with the rhythmic beats of drums and chants, created an atmosphere of celebration that brought a special energy across the campus.

3. Traditional Rituals and Ceremony

- Ganesh Pooja : The traditional Ganesh Pooja was carried out with deep reverence during the murti sthapna on 26th August, 2025. The ceremony involved sacred offerings of flowers, incense, and diyas, accompanied by the chanting of mantras and heartfelt prayers. While staying true to age-old customs, the pooja also embraced elements that connected closely with the student community, making it both spiritual and inclusive.
- Aarti : Each morning and evening, a large number of students came together to participate in the aarti, singing devotional hymns and chanting Lord Ganesha's name. This daily ritual became the heart of the celebration, nurturing a strong sense of spirituality and togetherness. The ambiance during the aarti was serene and reverent, as students prayed to Bappa for blessings, wisdom, and guidance.
- Satyanarayan Katha : A special Satyanarayan Katha was held to invoke blessings for the college's peace, growth, and prosperity. The sacred storytelling session narrated the divine legends of Lord Vishnu and drew the participation of both students and faculty. The event not only enriched the spiritual atmosphere but also deepened the sense of unity and devotion within the college community.

4. Farewell and Visarjan

As the three-day celebration came to an end, the moment arrived to bid farewell to Lord Ganesha. A heartfelt final aarti was performed, accompanied by offerings of bhog and sweets to the idol. The visarjan (immersion) was carried out with devotion and strict adherence to eco-friendly practices, showcasing the students' dedication to sustainability. The farewell was an emotional blend of gratitude, reverence, and hope, as the college community prayed for Bappa's blessings and eagerly looked forward to his return the following year.

Impact and Conclusion

The Ganesh Chaturthi celebration at SCET was a resounding success, serving as a testament to the cultural and spiritual richness of the festival. The event highlighted the unity and diversity of the college community, showcasing how students can come together to create a meaningful and joyous occasion.

This celebration not only enriched the cultural fabric of the college but also set a high standard for future events. It demonstrated the power of collective effort in creating a vibrant and inclusive environment that honours tradition while embracing modern values.
