✚ TexSnap (Capturing Technical Textile) (14th September 11:30 to 01:00 pm)

The poster for the TexSnap event features a central image of a black DSLR camera. Above the camera, the event title 'TexSnap' is written in large orange letters, with the tagline 'Capturing The Technical Textile' below it. To the right of the camera, a registration card displays the date '14 Sept', time '11:30 to 1:00 pm', and duration '90 min'. The registration fee is '20 Rs. per Team'. The poster also includes logos for Saksham Education Society, Pari 18, and Kishiti. Below the camera, a section titled 'RULES AND REGULATIONS' lists seven rules. At the bottom, contact information for the Faculty Co-ordinator (Prof. Shweta Doctor) and Student Co-ordinator (Neel Dobariya) is provided, along with the email 'textechdept@gmail.com' and the designer's name 'Nehal Patel'.

In this event, the participants were required to capture the photos of products associated with textiles available within the SCET campus excluding TT department. Finally they submitted best FOUR photos for evaluation in hard copy. The result was declared based on the uniqueness of products and its area of application. This event attracted students from all the branches of engineering including CO, IC, etc. This event got the overwhelming response this year from SCET as well as from other colleges too. Already 102 students had pre-registration in 52 teams and chaos happened with 82 participants in form of 45 teams for on-the-spot registration. It was very tough for jury to decide the result as varieties of captures were availed by students during event within such short span of time.

✚ Vastram (Designing a Garment) (14th September, 10:00 am to 11:30 am)

The poster for the 'Vastram' event is set against a dark blue background. At the top left is the logo of Sardar Vallabhbhai Education Society's College of Engineering & Technology. To its right is the 'Pari-dhan 18' logo in a stylized script, and further right is the 'क्षितिज' (Kshiti) logo with the tagline 'Anant Gyan Ki Talash Mein'. The central text reads 'VASTRAM Garment Designing TEXTILE TECHNOLOGY DEPARTMENT'. Below this, a row of colorful children's clothing items (vest, shorts, t-shirt, pants, striped shirt, hoodie, and tank top) is displayed on hangers. A dark blue box contains the event details: Date: 14 September, Time: 10:00 to 11:30 am, Registration Fees: 25 INR/Participant, and Time Duration: 90 min. Below this is a section titled 'Rules and Regulations' with a bulleted list of rules. In this event, students had to design and prepare a 2-3 aged kid garment from the provided fabric pieces by hand stitching which is a skilled job. A huge response was noticed from the students from various institutes. Total 80 teams with 152 participants took part in this event. The students enthusiastically prepared fashion garments for babies viz. middies, one piece, skirt-tops, frocks, etc. A jury Ms. Malti Menon from a reputed fashion institute called IIFT, Surat was invited to evaluate the samples of participants. She also was so excited to evaluate the samples due to massive response from the participants as well as all the volunteers of the events. It was indeed a happy moment when our respected Principal Madam – Dr. Vaishali Mungurwadi visited the place enthusiastically.

Some Glimpses of various events are:

Jury evaluating garments prepared by participants during Vastram
