Conclusion

A. What we learned

At the end of the Integration camp, we learned that, although we are from different region, at very first we are Indians.

Yes, we have different cultures, different languages and different talents that's the Beauty in Diversity.

We are volunteers and always ready for nation, whenever needed. We have to think innovative and passionate about the growth of our country. It's true that villages are hearts of India and with them, we are going Digital as well as we are Globalising. Proud to be Indian.

I am very thankful to our program officer Prof. Niket Shashtri and other supporting faculties of Sarvajanik College of Engineering and Technology as well GTU faculties who selected me and give chance to represent our Culture on such a great platform.
