

Sarvajanik Education Society
Sarvajanik College of Engineering & Technology
Faculty of Civil Engineering
PG Centre in Town & Country Planning

Event supported by
NOSPlan, SCET & SCETAA

Share what I gain
Urban planning project cases
By Er. Manoj L. Patel
(Alumni of M.E. TCP, SCET)

Friday 30 September
2016

Time
2pm - 4pm

Class room of M.E. TCP I
(C-304)

Organized by
PG Centre in Town & Country Planning, CED
Sarvajanik College of Engineering & Technology, Surat (Gujarat)

Courtesy: Ms. Pooja Roopawala (ME TCP II)

A report on interaction with an alumni on
“Urban planning project cases”

Organized by:

PG Centre in Town & Country Planning, Civil Engineering Department

Supported by:

SCET Alumni Association (SCETAA)

National Organization of Students of Planning (NOSPlan) – SCET

Alumni: Er. Manoj Lalitbhai Patel (Batch 2014)

Date: 30/09/2016

Faculty of Civil Engineering through its PG Centre in Town & Country Planning organized an interactive session under the banner of “Share What I Gain” – An initiative by SCETAA with support of NOSPlan-SCET. The session was organized for the students of ME TCP I and II. The talk was about “Urban Planning Project Cases” which was delivered by alumni Er. Manoj Lalitbhai Patel, 2014 alumni.

The motive of the interactive session was to bring sensitization among the current students about the urban planning practices through the experience of their super seniors.

About the alumni:

Er. Manoj L. Patel is established as a practicing consultant and serving for the society as a civil engineer planner. He is a proprietor of firm – “Eminent Planners (planning never ends)” with a base in Surat. He aims to get a challenging career utilizing creative ideas to work with interest. He wishes to practice all his work and expertise in the best possible manner and learn to acquire new developments in the urban planning sector. After completion of post-graduation, he had an opportunity to work with local practicing consultants in projects of a variety in nature. He is associated with ICEA, IUT and IIID as a life member.

Highlights of the interaction:

- The event was attended by almost all the students of ME TCP I and II. It was organized in the class of ME TCP I (C-304) dueing 2.00 pm to 4.00 pm;
- Prof. Khusbu S. Berawala, SCETAA Representative of CED introduced activities and benefits of SCETAA and urged to all the students to register on the SCETAA website;
- Prof. Dharmesh K. Bhagat, Head-CED inaugurated the event with motivational words and welcomed Alumni Er. Manoj L. Patel;
- Prof. Bhasker V. Bhatt, PG in-charge explained the purpose of the interactive session;
- Er. Manoj begun his talk with exemplary works of Ar. Charles Correa;
  - He discussed classic examples of Navi Mumbai planning, the development of Ulvi node, complex of British Council in New Delhi and such through a presentation;
  - After the presentation, a round of question answer was initiated and students were informed about their queries by Er. Manoj;
  - He motivated students to best utilize the available time during their PG studies to acquire maximum of understanding and develop insights for the urban planning as there lies enormous opportunity in the field.
- Faculty members of ME TCP motivated students by their presence;
- The event was managed by Students of NOSPlan;
- The NOSPlan-SCET office bearers felicitated Er. Manoj with a memento as a token of remembrance on behalf of all.

Glimpses:

Prof. Bhagat motivating

Students of ME TCP I & II

Er. Manoj in action

Office bearers of NOSPlan SCET (Vijay Kothari, Rohan Kania and Meera Patel of ME TCP II) thanking Alumni Er. Manoj

- A report by Prof. Bhasker V. Bhatt