Information Technology Department organized an interaction session under the banner of “Share What I Gain”, initiated by SCET Alumni Association for the students of SCET. The interaction was held on 20th September 2019 at 10.45 AM. The purpose of the interaction was to make students gain knowledge related to startup through which they can shape up their future after completing graduation.

About The Alumni:

The invited alumnus for this interactive session was Mr. Harshil Ramanil (2018 alumnus, I.T. Dept), who is founder of Recommerce industry start-up “Salephone” which is Incubated by GTU innovation council, Surat region under financial & mentoring and co-working space support. He delivered a talk about how he initiated his startup and about current process involved in his startup.

Highlights of the interaction:

- ✓ Mr. Harshil shared his experience with I.T. students about his journey in our institute.
- ✓ He elaborated about how the sudden spark of idea regarding selling of used mobile phones came into his mind. So, he explained students about the importance of Design Engineering which is more important for them in coming up with new ideas.
- ✓ He discussed how he proposed his idea to GTU during his final year. After approving his idea GTU played a vital role and supported him after approving his idea and provided financial grant of INR 1.5 lakh for his startup.
- ✓ He mainly highlighted how innovative ideas from students can be useful not only for their final year projects but also for their future own startups.
- ✓ He delivered the flow of process currently happening in his company, the challenges he faced during his journey and after overcoming those challenges how he entered into the successful phase of his company.
- ✓ The discussion about difference between startup and business was done which was more interesting for the students.
- ✓ The session was very interactive and helpful to students in thinking about their own ideas in startup

Few glimpses of the talk are depicted below:
