A Report on Industrial Visit to BSNL

The Master of Computer Application Department had organized an Industrial Visit at BSNL Market Exchange, Ring Road, Surat. The visit was specially planned for the Final Year MCA Students. The main objective of this visit was to make them aware about actual deployment of hardware and software in the field of wireless communication domain. This visit was beneficial for our students as we have subject (2650016 – Wireless Communication and Mobile Programming) in our syllabus.

This visit was coordinated by Prof. Rashmi Chouhan & Prof. Zankhana Vaishnav.
