

SARVAJANIK COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY

TED CLUB

Interactive session with Inspiring Author Varsha Adusumilli

To start something new you need to start great!

This line interprets that to let the community know about a new start there should be something which sways on every mouth of crowd. Moreover, it is the crowds that can help you make that thing great. Keeping the note of the same, there lit an ignition in college where we the students were encouraged to take step forward and get enrolled for the SCET TED Club.

Highlighting the keyword TED, the motto of the club gets reflected on its own. The TED club focuses on giving the taste of all the three crucial factors of today's era. The three crucial factors are the one which stands for the acronym of TED which is Technology, Entertainment and Design and to get intrigued into periodical events held by the club.

TED club organized the Interactive session with inspiring author Ms. Varsha Adusumilli. The session was scheduled on the 25th of February on 3:30 pm at the N.J. Seminar Hall. Number of students from varied branches spared their time to get involved in this amazing interactive session. Setting the tone of the atmosphere, the event was initiated with a short glimpse of the SCET TED Club. Ms. Varsha Adusumilli is an alumna from BITS, Pilani. Imbued in the world of entrepreneurship she is also an author of the book Wonder Girls.

Driving further there started a short interview with Ms. Varsha where she was asked to answer various questions which revolved around her book. In the interview round, there revealed many stories. The stories were about how she met the girls and the experience she went through while writing her first ever book. She found it really interesting to plunge into becoming an author and she even plans to write another book. Followed to that, students were given a chance to put forward their question and receive the best possible answer from the mentor of the day. Questions about overcoming from failure, career paths, hacks and tips spilled in the session hall. Our speaker was supportive and kind enough to give our students an ear and answer all the questions asked.

The reviews were full of sweetness and eagerness to attend many more sessions like this.
